Friday 23rd February 2024

Dear parents/carers,

It's World Book Day on Thursday 7th March!

This year, Southfields will be celebrating 'cosy up with a good book'.

We are asking children to come to school in their comfiest clothes this year; this might be their pyjamas, oversized hoodies or fluffy dressing gowns – any clothing which makes them feel cosy and relaxed to read in.

Throughout the day children will be celebrating by reading their favourite books, sharing stories with each other and even writing their own class short stories!

Breakfast with books

This year, we would also like to invite families into school to celebrate World Book day with us. Families will be invited into school for a light breakfast which will be served in the hall from 8.50 – 9.00 am. There will be a short talk about how to support your child at home with their reading and the chance to ask any questions. Following this, parents can join their child in class to see how reading is taught at Southfields and spend some time with their child sharing their favourite book they've read in school.

We hope that as many families as possible will be able to join us and celebrate Southfields love of reading!

Kind regards,

Miss Albrow
